A Baby's Feet.

The poet Swinburn will be better appreciated by the readers of Fashion and Gossip when the following lines have been perused:

A baby's feet, like sea-shells pink Might tempt, should heaven see fit, An angel's lips to kiss, I think, A baby's feet.

Like rose hued sea-flowers toward the heat They stretch, and spread, and wink.
Their ten soft buds that part and meet
No flower bells that expand and shrink
Gleam half so heavenly sweet
As shine on life's untrod ten brink—
A baby's feet.
